WETASKIWIN HOTEL BLOWN UP.

Wetaskiwin, Feb. 6.

About nine o'clock yesterday morning a terrible explosion occurred in the billiard room of the Briard Hotel, and as a result that portion of the house is a total wreck. The billiard room was blown to atoms while the bar-room and kitchen, adjoining, were filled with debris from the walls and ceiling. The south wall was bulged out several inches, and there were few window panes in the entire hotel or adjacent places of business not broken. The shock was felt all over town and a large crowd was at once upon the scene, but aid was not required as the hand extinguishers promptly quelled the flames. The cause of explosion is a complete mystery, but it is surmised that it was gas from a defective boiler. Fortunately no body was seriously hurt, though there were many narrow escapes. Mrs. Locke, the cook, who was in the kitchen, had her arms, face and hair badly burned but she is not dangerously injured.

NO FRILLS WANTED.

The Bulletin begs to strongly endorse the following from the Toronto Star, a pronounced liberal paper, which appears in that paper under the heading: "Why send an escort?"

"There will be plenty of soldiers in London for the King's coronation without Canada sending along an escort of five hundred men with Sir Wilfrid Laurier. So far nobody has shown what sense there would be in sending such a body of men along carrying soldiers from a country where we have them not to a country where they are thick as blackberries."

"If the Dominion premier is to have a body-guard of five hundred armed men, a Provincial Premier should surely be attended in his progress by a body two hundred strong. All the Provincial Premiers are to cross over for the coronation, and surely they could not go unattended and carry their own valises if the Dominion Premier is to have an escort five hundred strong."

"It is not necessary to have Canadian soldiers to take part in the parade, there are a lot of them on service in South Africa and perhaps they will be awarded for their valorous deeds in London in June. And if the war is not over by that time, something simple and modest in the way of a parade would be quite fitting."

"It is not, we feel sure, Sir Wilfrid Laurier's desire to travel to London with an army at his heels, and perhaps, without being discourteous, he could intimate as much to the colonial office if that be necessary."

REGULAR MEETING OF TOWN COUNCIL.

The city fathers assembled in regular session on Wednesday evening, all the members being present.

The minutes of the last regular meeting and the subsequent special meeting were read and adopted.

The first communication was from the Bulletin Co. drawing the attention of the council to the pamphlet now being issued by the Bulletin and offering the town numbers of the same at $100 per thousand up to three thousand and two additional thousands at $75 per thousand. Mr. Oliver, M. P., was present and addressed the council on the matter, urging the need and the lack of suitable immigration literature and pointing out the plan and advantages of the pamphlet. A regular edition of 5,000 is being issued by the Bulletin as a private enterprise, to be supplied to business men and distributed through government agencies in the United States and C. P. B. agencies in Eastern Canada. The council decided to supplement this edition by an order for 5,000 copies at a cost of $500.

At E. Jackson wrote the council saying that as owner of lots 2 and 3, block one, R. L. 10 and lot 34, block 1, R. L. 10, he was prepared on condition of the yearly remission of the taxes on said lots to permit the use of lots for public street until such time as a purchaser for the lots was in prospect. The secretary was instructed to inform Mr. Jackson that the council will consider his proposition at a later session.

Messrs. Brown, J. Robertson, solicitors for Messrs. McDougall, Secord and Lines, wrote informing the council that in accord with the request of the latter their clients had relinquished the option held by them on certain portions of land in the H. E. Co. reserve which appeared to the council likely fit for the waterworks plant if such be installed. The writers also enclosed an account for $100, being expenses incurred by Messrs. McDougall, Secord and Lines in preparing the proposition submitted by them to the town some time since, and asked that the same be paid by the council. On motion the clerk was directed to the secretary instructed to write Messrs. McDougall, Secord and Lines thanking them for the courtesy of relinquishing their option on the parcel of land in question.

Messrs. Sigler & Pickard wrote explaining that the legal difficulties as to the ownership of block X had been now cleared up and asking that the sidewalk for which the owners of block X had previously petitioned, be constructed. The matter was referred to the board of works.

Constable H. E. Rudd wrote asking for a leave of absence from Feb. 20th to 28th, to attend to private business and suggesting a replacement. The matter was left with the license and police committee, the council recommending the granting of the request.

Police Magistrate Cowan wrote asking that his salary be increased to $50 per month. Solicitor Beck informed the council that he had several times written the minister of justice, endeavoring to secure from that department the payment of a portion of the salary of the police magistrate, in consideration of the criminal cases which were tried by him. The matter was referred to the license and police committee, Solicitor Beck being asked to again write the department of justice in the same strain.

Secretary-Treasurer Kinnaird wrote asking for an increase of salary. His salary heretofore had been $100 per month and on motion this was increased to $125 per month.

Dr. Braithwaite, medical health officer was present and addressed the council regarding the lack of stringency in the present health by-law. Under the present law he was practically forced to await the reporting of a case of infectious disease before taking action, and in receiving a certificate from the attending physician of the absence of infection must remove the quarantine card. He wished the law made more stringent in order that he might be able to discharge his duty and protect the health of the town. The question was left to the health and relief committee who are to collaborate with the medical health officer and the town solicitor in making the necessary amendments to the by-law.

The board of works reported recommending the erection of a six foot sidewalk along McDougall street from Jasper avenue to the hall, the town to bear the expense of the lane and street crossings and the walk to be paid for by frontage tax.

The fire, water and light committee reported the new fire tank at the corner of McDougall street and Jasper avenue which had been found defective. The contractors had agreed to remedy the defect.

The tender of W. J. Baldwin to supply coal for use at the fire hall at $2.50 per ton, was accepted.

The secretary reported having fulfilled the instructions given him at last meeting as to writing Mr. Chipman several points whereon the council desired advice.

The question of the payment of part of Mr. W. Chipman's account came up. Messrs. Gillingham and Goodridge recommending the payment of $500 on the account. Coun. Heimann moved in amendment that Couns. Henry, Grierson and Finsell be a committee to examine the account before any payment were made. There being no second to the amendment the motion was voted on and carried.

The secretary was instructed to write Messrs. Mackenzie & Mann urging upon them the desirability of completing the C. & E. extension at the earliest possible moment.

The fire, water and light committee reported that the Electric Light Co. had been asked to furnish a statement of the property the town would be expected to purchase if the plant were bought.

The following accounts were passed for payment:

C. W. Mathers, souvenirs.	$50.00
Bulletin Co. advertising.	$1.00
Pay sheet, street labor.	7.50
Fire brigade alarm.	7.50

THE DONSPEIL.

Calgary Herald. The Curling Donspeil commences in Calgary tomorrow and there is every indication that it will be a success. Last year the curlers had a jolly time, but owing to the soft and unseasonable weather the year, however, there is no ground for complaint on that score. The ice is in good condition in fact, never was better, and the curlers of the City are looking forward to a grand fore-gathering.

The Secretary of the Calgary Club, J. H. Miquelon, is a very busy man and he has made every arrangement for the visitors, while the other officials of the Club are not a bit behind him in energy.

Bucks are expected from Nelson, Ogilvie, Athabasca, Macleod, Lethbridge, Medicine Hat and other important points.

Mr. Miquelon has promulgated the following rules to which special attention is directed:

ALBERTA OATS.

From the Commercial.

At the last meeting of the council of the Winnipeg board of trade, a motion was adopted asking the Dominion minister of trade and commerce to investigate the complaints regarding the special grades made for Alberta oats. This action was taken on account of a resolution received from the Edmonton board, which claimed that a great injustice had been done that district through the action of the standards board in fixing these special grades.

As this is a matter in which the board has jurisdiction, the standards board is being officially appointed by the department, the board can not undertake any direct investigation. It was unanimously agreed, however, that the department should be asked to take up the matter.

It was stated at the meeting that three Manitoba oatmeal millers concerned had bought unfit for milling, but found them sold for feed. Samples of the meal from these mills were shown. This, however, did not influence the council, and it was decided to ask for the investigation.

FROZEN AT MACLEOD.

Frank Sentinel, two inmates were held yesterday at Macleod. One was a woman who died very suddenly and the other over the remains of a Mr. Jarvis a liverman of Cardston, whose frozen body was found about three miles out of Macleod. Mr. Jarvis went from that town with a wagon and team of horses during the late cold snap and the next day his body was found lying on the ground, frozen stiff and with one leg broken.

A search for his team resulted in their being found tangled in a barbed wire fence near by and nearly starved from exposure. It is presumed that the team ran away, throwing Jarvis from the wagon and that he was frozen to death while trying to reach aid.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR STOCK RAISERS.

It is probable that the 14th and 15th days of May will witness one of the largest gatherings of stockmen, at Calgary, that have come together in the history of the Northwest, the occasion being the spring show and sale of purebred cattle and stallions. This event should challenge the attention of every man in the Territories who makes a pretense at breeding stock, as the personal advantages which are open to him are alluring and will touch him in his most sensitive part—his pocket.

In order to assist and encourage breeders in the Territories the cattle and horse breeders' associations, assisted by the Territorial Department of Agriculture under whose auspices they were organized a few years ago are organizing the show and sale to be held at Calgary. It is realized that thousands of dollars are annually sent out of the country to Ontario and Manitoba for purebred sires, which can be raised just as well in the Territories, with corresponding profit to the breeders. The conditions in Manitoba are practically the same as in the Territories—particularly Eastern Assiniboia—and why should not the latter raise just as many, and as good, purebred stock as the former? This proposition is so simple that the above associations have been formed for the purpose of working it out. The show and sale at Calgary are part of their plan. Stock owned by members of the association will be transported to Calgary free of charge; it will be sold by public auction to the highest bidder, for cash; and will be transported to the purchaser's nearest railway point free of charge. This arrangement removes the question of transport, which under ordinary circumstances is a restraint upon the sale of stock to purchasers at distant points; it also ensures the highest cash price, and makes possible an exchange of sires, so necessary at times in all purebred and other herds.

The same privileges and advantages as to transport and sale are extended to owners of registered stallions in the Territories.

An interesting programme has been mapped out for convention week. On the 14th, the cattle and stallion shows will be held, with a stockmen's banquet at night. On the 15th, the auction sale and in the evening a public meeting to be addressed by representative Canadian stockmen. It is expected that Hon. Sidney Fisher, Dominion minister of agriculture, Hon. G. H. V. Buley, Territorial commissioner of agriculture, F. W. Hodson, Dominion live stock commissioner, Prof. Hendrick, of the agricultural university of Wisconsin, and others, will speak. On the 16th the cattle and horse breeders' associations will meet. On the 17th the convention of agricultural societies' delegates. Arrangements are being made for representation from all Territorial agricultural societies, in order to further develop public interest in the improvement of stock.

Catalogues containing entries will be issued for the information of exhibitors and intending purchasers. These, and all other information, may be obtained by writing the secretary, C. W. Peterson, deputy commissioner of agriculture, at Regina.

ELECTED BY ACCLAMATION.

Woodstock, Ont., Jan. 30.—Hon. James Sutherland, who went back to his constituents for re-election on Tuesday, to the office as minister of marine and fisheries, was returned by acclamation yesterday. There was a big crowd at the nomination meeting including many political opponents who heartily greeted him. There was a street procession in sleighs, headed by pipers from Zorra, and a home, Jim Sutherland's motto "Welcome home, Jim Sutherland." Speeches were made at a mass meeting by Arch. Campbell, Charles Macell, Hugh Guthrie and other members of parliament.

EDMONTON BULLETIN FEB. 7, 1903.

STRATHCONA.

Strathcona is the railway town of the Edmonton district. It is the northern terminus of the Calgary & Edmonton railway, and is situated on the south side of the Saskatchewan overlooking the river from the high bank of the valley. It is the only point on the Saskatchewan as yet touched by railway except Prince Albert, 400 miles to the east. The existence of the town dates from the completion of the railway in 1891 since which time it has been the railway shipping point for the district, and has all the advantages which come to a railway town with a daily train service. From nothing at all in 1891, Strathcona has grown in 1901 to a town of 1,500 people with shipping facilities and industrial enterprises second to none in the west. Strathcona is one of the principal grain shipping points in the west. The greater part of the grain shipped is oats, and does not require to be loaded through elevators as does wheat. The number of elevators is therefore not the same index to the amount of grain shipments that it is elsewhere. Besides the flour and oatmeal mills at Strathcona account for a large part of the grain deliveries. The townsite of Strathcona, although chiefly situated on the upland, includes also a river flat upon which are situated a number of industrial enterprises suitable to that location, including a saw mill, planing mill, etc., boat building establishment, brick yard and tannery. The river is crossed by ferry at this point in summer.

There is an office of Dominion lands, and also a large hall for the free accommodation of immigrants, in Strathcona. Also a customs office.

There is a strong agricultural society, which holds very successful annual exhibitions. Grounds are purchased and fenced and a good half mile race track laid out.

The town is lit by electric light, has a complete telephone system, connected with Edmonton, and also with Ellerslie and Beaumont settlements to the south. A municipal council directs the town affairs. A first class gasoline fire engine and chemical works against fire. There is a good mileage of graded streets and sidewalks, and in all particulars the town is up to date. There are many handsome residences and the town is growing rapidly. There are two brick school buildings, the most recently erected of which cost $20,000.

Local mails are distributed from Strathcona to Beaumont, Clover Bar, Agriola, and Fort Saskatchewan, and to all points along the railway line. There are five mails a week each way between Strathcona and Edmonton and in and out on the railway.

Strathcona and Edmonton have always been rivals for the trade of the district. It is the best evidence of the value and growth of that trade that both have flourished. While Strathcona had the advantage of situation in the railway shipping trade Edmonton had the advantage in the northern outfitting trade. While the rivalry of the two towns may have had some ill effect on their growth it has been distinctly to the advantage of the district at large in preventing monopoly in trade of any kind. At this date they have about concluded that there is room enough for both, and are settling down to recognize their community of interest, as the trade centre of the most fertile district in the Territories.

RIVER NAVIGATION.

The Saskatchewan river is the great physical feature of the Edmonton district. It rises in the Rocky Mountains and flows northeasterly to a point about 60 miles northeast of Edmonton. There it turns easterly and then southeasterly, finally emptying into Lake Winnipeg. It is navigable for large steamers to Edmonton, and for smaller steamers to Rocky Mountain house, 150 miles above. The upper waters of the river in the foothills of the Rockies and a great deal of the upper part of its course from a point 60 miles above Edmonton, is well wooded, ensuring a supply of cheap lumber to the settlements in the agricultural regions along its banks for many years. The vast coal measures along its banks are also made easily accessible by the navigation of the river independent of railways. The scenic beauty of the valley and the gold bearing character of its gravel bars, now being worked by steam dredges—add very greatly to the attractions of the district.

COAL OIL.

The selling agents of the Canadian Oil Refining Co., at Petrolia, have issued a circular setting forth the prices of Canadian refined oil. The circular is of special interest as the Canadian Refining Co. is a separate institution from the Standard Oil Co. which has been supposed to hold the western oil trade in the bonds of an unbreakable monopoly. The circular says:

"Canadian refined oil of the best quality can be bought here in barrels, for 13c per gallon (Imperial), and the freight rate to Winnipeg would be 61-1/2c per 100 lbs. This would make the cost of a gallon of refined oil, delivered in bulk at Winnipeg, about 18c per gallon, and in barrels, it would be about 19c, to be added to which would be the cost of the barrel, $1.45 for new oak barrels, and for which the refinery would allow $1.00, it returned to them."

CHICAGO OAT MARKET SLUMPS.

A despatch from Chicago on Jan. 27th, says: A slump in the price of oats at the opening of the board of trade today caused a tremendous bear campaign, begun by enormous liquidations in May oats. For some time traders have been predicting something should happen in that grain, and as soon as a stream of May oats began to flow into the pit, prices dropped steadily, weak holders of margined oats letting everything go. Millions of bushels were immediately liquidated, and in less than half an hour May oats fell 6 cents. Support, however, soon appeared, and when it was found Patten was buying, other longs came to the rescue, and early short sellers became frightened. In fifteen minutes May had recovered nearly all its losses and began to steady around 43. It was a case of speculative manipulation, purely. Naturally the break in oats effected other grains. May wheat, declining from 73-3/4 to 72, soon recovered, reacting to 77-1/2. May corn also fell off from 62 to 60-3/4, partially recovering. Provisions were weakened and broke from 5 to 22-1/2c.

INTERESTED IN ALBERTA.

J. A. Trimble, who returned some time since from a visit to relatives in Iowa, reports that great interest is manifested in that state in the opportunities offered emigrants in Alberta.

The high price of land, the natural outcome of development, has accordingly depressed the opportunities of profitable farming, and as a consequence many are turning their eyes toward the free or low priced land in Western Canada. The district visited by Mr. Trimble land sold recently for $55 per acre.

Among those eager to take the advantages offered in Alberta are many land holders whose intention it is to dispose of their land in Iowa and invest the proceeds in a larger area in Alberta.

Another class likely to come in large numbers are renters who have become dissatisfied with the margin left after paying rent.

The weather in Iowa was fine, no snow and good wheeling. A fur coat was found very comfortable.

CANADIAN NORTHERN SCHEDULE.

The new schedule of rates on grain, flour, oatmeal and mill stuffs for all Canadian Northern lines in Manitoba has been completed. The new tariff, which comes into effect February 1, provides for a reduction of two cents per 100 pounds on all the articles mentioned, and means a reduction of from 11-1/2 to 13-1/2 per cent, at the various points affected. Points on the main line east of Winnipeg, on the Portage la Prairie, Emerson, Carman, Winnipegosis and as far as Miamon on the Morris-Brandon branch are the chief gainers by the change. The following are the rates and new schedules from the sections to Port Arthur:

On main line, all points between:

UNDENIABLY THE CONDOR WAS LOST.

The steamer Queen City which reached Victoria on Jan. 28th, afternoon reported that the boat found by the Indians about four miles from the Abousett reservation, on January 6, was undoubtedly that of the Condor. The boat was white painted, seventeen feet long, clinker built and had round hardwood panels on her bow with a brass letter "C" in centre. There was also the naval broad arrow on her stem, and below this were the figures XVI. in Roman numerals. Below were the letters S. L. I. R. or S. H. B. with the cross-bar obliterated. Below this was S. H. 98, evidently the contraction for "Sherness, 1898," she having been built at that yard in that year. She had two galvanized iron gripe, an iron ring six inches in diameter, four pieces of galvanized iron chain two feet long, marked with the letters M. T. and S. R. There was a small hole about one foot long by six inches on the port side of her bottom.

No further news was received of the wreckage found marked Red Rock.

At Cape Beale a gold watch and a chronometer has been washed ashore. The chronometer is of English make and the watch of number 5533. It had a long square link gold chain, and on the back of the watch is a Maltese cross with a green stone. These are believed to come from the wreck which was broken up off Cape Beale. They were found near there by the lighthouse keeper at Cape Beale. The Victoria Times printed a story of wreckage having been found from the Condor near Alberni. When the geographical position of Alberni, at the head of the long canal running from Barclay Sound, is considered this seems improbable. The wreckage has been received in confirmation and it is regarded as a fake. The Queen City spoke the Grant at Uclulet, and no report was given of the finding of the wreckage. The Grant was bound to Abousett to secure the Condor's boat.
